

“Here Until the Work Is Done”
A Time for Ecumenical Worship, Witness and Work

“Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.”
1 Corinthians 15:58 (NRSV)

Join Us in New Orleans for Worship, Witness & Work
August 19 - August 25, 2007

Two years after Hurricane Katrina devastated the Gulf Coast, residents continue their efforts to rebuild. But they need our support. The faith community was there as first responders. We will continue to be there for the victims of this storm until the work is done.

Come to New Orleans as we worship, witness and work together to help those in need as they rebuild their homes, churches, communities and lives.

THE WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- Participate in hands-on efforts to rebuild homes, communities and lives (come for part of or the entire week)
- Clergy Listening Tour (Aug. 21-22)*
- Workshops and Resource Center
- Daily Worship Experiences
- “Gospel Explosion” Worship Service on Saturday
- Opportunities to encourage and support those in need

SUPPORT THIS EFFORT BY:

- Sending a volunteer or team of volunteers from your church to participate
- Making a financial contribution to support Ecumenical Work Week
- Praying for the participants and that the Gulf Coast region would be fully restored with justice

Space is limited. Please contact Rev. William Drayton to register at (202) 544-2393.*

For more information contact on how to be involved in this important and exciting work, please contact: Rev. Leslie C. Tune or James Stevenson at (202) 544-2350 or via email at:

Ltune@nccusa.org or jsteven@email.arizona.edu.

Sponsored by the Special Commission for the Just Rebuilding of the Gulf Coast